To: Attendees of the 2022 Heritage Clubs International Peer Group Conference

On behalf of the City of Bettendorf, it is my distinct pleasure to welcome you, the leading bank marketing experts, to Heritage Clubs International Peer Group Conference, "Riverfront Reconnect," February 21 – 25, 2022 at the Bend XPO in East Moline. The City of Bettendorf is proud to be one of the Quad Cities cool, creative, connected and prosperous communities, and to be a partner of Visit Quad Cities!

You will notice the Quad Cities shares a new I-74 bridge that connects our Iowa and Illinois communities. It is absolutely stunning, most especially in the evening when it is lit up for all to see.

While you are staying in the Quad Cities, we invite you to venture over to the Iowa side and enjoy the many amenities our premier city and the surrounding cities up and down the river have to offer. From hotels, restaurants, shopping, gaming and parks to historical and cultural attractions, I am certain the Quad Cities will have something for everyone.

Again, welcome to the Quad Cities! We hope you enjoy your stay.

Very Truly Yours,

Welcome to the Quad Cities!

On behalf of the 102,000 residents of the City of Davenport, I graciously welcome you to the Quad Cities for the Heritage Clubs International Peer Group Conference.

While you're here in the Quad Cities, I hope you take the time to visit Davenport and enjoy some of the many outstanding amenities in our community. Davenport is home to world-class museums; the Figge Art Museum, the German American Heritage Center, and the Putnam Museum. Downtown Davenport hosts many wonderful restaurants, bakeries, and fun activities, like the Analog Arcade and the Blackhawk Bowl located inside the Hotel Blackhawk. Take a stroll through the Village of East Davenport and visit one of the many locally owned boutiques, restaurants and spas.

We wish you the best for your conference, and hope you will make the most of what our strong, welcoming, vibrant region has to offer during your stay.

RE: Heritage Clubs Peer Group Conference

Dear Heritage Clubs International Peer Group Conference attendees:

Greetings and welcome to Moline and the Quad Cities. I am confident you will find that the hospitality, friendliness and welcoming nature of our community is second-to-none.

Here in Moline we are proud to say we combine small town charm with big city amenities. We invite you to explore our vibrant downtown area featuring dozens of restaurants and nightspots, our historic neighborhoods and – despite the chilly weather – our world class riverfront.

We hope you have the opportunity to visit some of our top attractions, such as the John Deere Pavilion on River Drive near the TaxSlayer Civic Center, shops and retailers in our Olde Towne neighborhood on the bluffs above the river, the plaza at Bass Street Landing or any of the other hundreds of businesses and entertainment venues scattered across our city.

We pride ourselves on being a welcoming and diverse community that is always ready to roll out a red carpet for guests. So once again, welcome to Moline and please enjoy your stay.

Sincerely,
