A Monthly Update for Community Circle Members • Published by Community National Bank

May/June 2020

Dear Members,

Every year I'm amazed as my flowerbeds begin to change, seemingly overnight. I've been watching the daffodils and tulips emerging. They have no concerns about the Corona-virus. Despite the chaos in our world, they're popping up through the cold, hard earth and remaining snow, and they're a welcome sight. They remind me of Vermonters. Steadfast and true, getting through the hard times and finding a way to make it all work despite what they're up against.

With each passing day, we're one day closer to better days ahead. Julie and I look forward to reconnecting with you and seeing you again in the near future.

Until then, be well!

Shelly
