

A Day in the Life of a Bank Club Director “WAIT”

Watch the news for updates on the pandemic, wait

Read updates daily on the virus, wait

Cancel or reschedule tours? wait

Phone calls informing travelers of rescheduled tour with great response to rebook, wait

Needing answers from Tour Operators and partners, wait

Questions about answers from tour operators and partners, wait

Rescheduled tours, update flyers or brochures, hope and wait

Bank responsibilities to customer for deposits vs vouchers? wait

Should we cancel summer club activities and events? wait

Prepare letters and mailings to cancel or reschedule tours, wait

Think about tour planning, where, when & wait

Organize and go through files, wait

Ordered to work in my office with door closed, wait

Will my phone ring? wait

Feeling isolated and missing club members and planning, wait

My mind is typically on multiple things each day, now not so much, my job has slowed way down, wait

Training modules complete by mid-April, normally not complete until just prior to the end of the year, wait

I enjoyed a much needed phone call from a PTO! Whew, feeling more informed but I still wait

When do we move forward, how to move forward for travel planning, dates to move forward to and where should these new destinations be planned... we must wait

Will this pandemic re-occur, will our club members want to travel? watch and read and wait

I am attempting to be creative in ways to boost club members' moral, they all cost money and I find the need to conserve these funds due to deposits that will be returned from Club's account, once I have permission, instead of giving waivers, until then I wait

My day is not filled with emails now as there are very few, wait

Another much needed phone call from a PTO makes me feel more understood and appreciated but I am still hesitant that travel is around the corner, wait

Prepare for HCI COVID-19 Rally Calls, anxiously I wait

Updates sent to supervisor and front lines of our Club's status weekly, and then I wait

Tip-Toeing through each day, praying that my job is intact when this is all over but still, I wait.
